Stand up. Learn. Be the change.

Opening Prayer

A Prayer Before You Begin

In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

Lord, bless this reader on their journey. Guard their health in body, mind, and spirit as they study. Open their heart to knowledge and their mind to understanding, and let what they learn here become light in their hands. Guide them to the places where they are needed — to help others, and to save lives, safely. Bless their steps, their work, and every life their learning will one day protect.

Amen.

Welcome from the Minister

Welcome. I am glad you are here.

I founded Minister Destiny Testimony Schools because I believe learning should be open to everyone — and I mean everyone. This school is free. There is no tuition, and there are no loans. If you have a desire to learn, you have a place here.

I am Minister Destiny Marie Morgan. I was ordained on May 15, 2025, through the Universal Life Church. My ministry is advocacy: standing up to injustice and helping people. That same calling is at the heart of this school. What you will study here is meant to do real good in real life — for you, for your family, and for the people around you.

I know what it means to learn by studying, by asking questions, and by refusing to give up. I built this school so that you can do the same, at your own pace, in your own way.

You do not need permission to begin. You do not need to wait for the right age, the right job, or the right moment in your life. Start where you are. Read a lesson. Take a test when you are ready. Earn a certificate, and then keep going.

Thank you for being here. Stand up. Learn. Be the change.

With gratitude,

Minister Destiny Marie Morgan

Minister, Minister Destiny Testimony Schools

The Office of the Minister

Minister Destiny Marie Morgan is the Minister of Minister Destiny Testimony Schools. She holds every office of this school, and she is in charge of all things in it.

Minister Destiny Marie Morgan — Minister of Minister Destiny Testimony Schools

Every decision of the school rests with her office — enrollment, student IDs, discipline, and records alike. There is no other administration above her or beside her. When this handbook says the school decides, it is the Minister who decides.

If you have a question, use the question box on the school page. Ordinary questions are answered right away, with answers drawn from this handbook. Questions about law enforcement, about records, or about your student ID are different — those go directly to Minister Destiny herself.

Everything between you and the Minister's office travels inside the school, through the school page. Questions reach the Minister through the question box. Documents — your certificates, your reports, and your transcript — live in your student portal, and travel inside School Mail when you or the office sends them. Concerns and safety issues reach the Minister through School Mail too, flagged for her — and a message flagged as a safety issue is also sent to her own email at once, so she sees it without delay. School Mail is the school's own mailbox, inside the school only: your mailbox is your student ID number, there is no email address to it, and the only person you can write to there is the Minister's office.

Part 1 — Enrollment & Your Student ID

Enrolling creates your official student record with the ministry and gives you your student number. Learning itself is free and open to everyone — enrolled or not — and enrolling is never required in order to learn. This part is placed here, right up front, so the whole process is plain before you ever enroll. No surprises later.

Enrolling is open to everyone. Minister Destiny Testimony Schools is a free community school. It is not a .edu, and it does not turn anyone away — its mission is that anyone can learn. There is nothing you have to prove, and no test to get in. When you enroll, the school asks for just a few things:

- Your name;
- Your email;
- Your school — the Youth School, the Adult School, or the Law Enforcement School; and
- Your age group — never your birthdate.

That last one matters. The school asks for your age group only, and it never asks for your birthdate. That is a protection, not an accident: a birthdate is private information that can be used against a person, and this school does not need it in order to teach you — so it is never collected, not at enrollment, not ever.

Your photo. You upload a photo of yourself, and that photo appears on your student ID card. If you are under 18, your parent or guardian agrees to your enrollment — including to your photo being on your ID.

The name on your record. Your official student ID card and your certificates carry the name on your enrollment record — the name you enroll under. Once you are enrolled, that is the name your ID is issued under and the name your certificates print, so enroll under the name you want your work to carry.

One student, one card. Your student ID is issued once, as one single card. The school does not hand out sheets of copies — on purpose. Copies of an ID can travel into hands they were never meant for, and this school will not make that possible. You receive one card, and it is yours alone.

If you lose your ID. If your card is lost, go to your record page, submit a request, and say why — what happened to it. The school will then issue you a new student ID number and email you a new single card under that new number. And from the moment the new number is issued, your old number is void: it works nowhere, for anyone — not on the school page, not for certificates, not at all.

Let the warning be plain, because it protects you: reporting your ID lost so that someone else can use it defeats itself. The moment your new number is born, the lost number dies — so a card handed to another person is worth nothing in their hands. And nothing you have earned is lost in the change: the ministry's records keep the connection between your old number and your new one, so your history — your courses, your points, your certificates — stays whole, and stays yours.

Mission, Vision, and Motto

Our Mission

To help people become smarter and stronger — free. Minister Destiny Testimony Schools teaches real law, real life skills, and real knowledge to anyone, at any age, whether they have a job or not, whatever their credit or their past. No tuition. No loans. No one turned away.

Our Vision

To become the new community college for our communities — training open to people of all ages, with no waiting until high school ends to begin learning.

Our Motto

Stand up. Learn. Be the change.

These three statements guide everything this school does. Every lesson, every test, and every certificate exists to serve the mission, to move toward the vision, and to live out the motto.

Open to All

Minister Destiny Testimony Schools welcomes everyone. No one is discriminated against here, and no one is turned away — not because of disability, age, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, language, income, credit, employment, housing, or anything in their past. Students with disabilities are welcome to enroll like anyone else, and they are full members of this school. If you need school materials in a different format, ask through the question box on the school page, and the school will help you through the free routes it uses. Whoever you are, and wherever you are starting from, there is a place for you here.

How the School Works

Minister Destiny Testimony Schools is made up of three schools. Each school has its own lessons, tests, and certificates, and each one is open to you free of charge.

The Three Schools

The Youth School is built for young learners who are ready to begin learning about the law, about safety, and about life. Its lessons speak in clear, plain language and build knowledge step by step.

The Adult School is built for grown learners who want real knowledge for real life — the law, their rights, their responsibilities, and the practical skills that help a person stand strong in court, at work, and at home.

The Law Enforcement School is built for those who serve, or who want to serve, in law enforcement and related work. Its lessons focus on the knowledge that helps keep people safe and helps those who protect others do their work well and fairly.

You choose your school by readiness and interest — by what you are ready to learn, and by what you want to learn. There is no age gate on learning at Minister Destiny Testimony Schools. A person does not have to wait to grow older before they can begin, and no one is too old to start.

The Topic Library — Free Choice

With so many topics in this school, the choice is yours: in the topic library, you may choose however many topics you want to learn, in any order you want, with no restrictions — the topic library is fully open to every student, enrolled or not. The three main courses keep their step-by-step order; the free choice lives in the topic library.

Years and Ranks

Learning here follows a four-year path, with a rank for each year:

- Freshman — Year One
- Sophomore — Year Two
- Junior — Year Three
- Senior — Year Four
- Graduate — the rank earned when the path is complete

Your rank shows how far along the path you have come. It is a record of work you have done and knowledge you have earned, step by step, lesson by lesson.

Lessons

Lessons are always readable. You can open a lesson, read it, and study it at any time, at your own pace. Read a lesson once, or read it again as many times as you need. There is no deadline and no pressure. Learning comes first, and testing comes after you have had the chance to truly learn.

Tests

Tests unlock in order. You take one test at a time, in the order the school sets out, so that each step builds on the step before it.

The pass standard is 80%. When you take a test, you will see your score and whether you passed or did not pass — the test shows your score and pass/fail only. If you do not pass the first time, study the lesson again and take the test again when you are ready. Not passing is not the end. It is simply a sign to learn a little more and try again.

Certificates

When you pass, you earn a certificate. Each certificate names the school and the topic you completed. A certificate is a record of honest work: it says that you studied, that you were tested, and that you met the standard.

Collect your certificates as you go. Together, they tell the story of your learning — topic by topic, school by school, year by year.

Your Progress Stays With You

A student's learning progress stays on the student's own device. Your lessons read, your tests taken, and your scores as you study are yours. Keep your device safe, and keep any certificates you download in a safe place, so you always have your own record of what you have earned.

Enrollment

Learning at Minister Destiny Testimony Schools is open to everyone, with no signup required. Anyone can read the lessons and begin learning right away, whether they have enrolled or not. No one needs to enroll in order to learn.

Enrollment is a separate, simple step for students who want an official record with the ministry.

What Enrolling Is

Enrolling means creating a record with the ministry that says you are a student of Minister Destiny Testimony Schools. When you enroll:

- Your record is created and kept by the ministry.
- You receive a student ID number — a number that belongs to you and identifies your student record.
- You receive a printable ID card that you can print and keep.

Your student ID number and your ID card are yours. Keep them safe. If you are ever asked about your enrollment, your ID number is how the ministry can find your record.

What Enrolling Is Not

Enrolling is not required to learn. The school is open to everyone with no signup. You will never be turned away from a lesson because you have not enrolled, and you will never be charged to learn. Enrollment is a record, not a gate.

Whether you enroll on your first day or later on — or whether you simply come to learn — you are welcome here.

Part 2 — Conduct Rules

Every student at Minister Destiny Testimony Schools is part of a learning community. These simple standards keep that community honest, respectful, and safe for everyone.

Honest Work

- Do your own work. What you submit and what you are tested on should be what you yourself have learned.
- Do not cheat on tests. A test score only means something when it is truly yours.
- Certificates must be earned. A certificate stands for real study and a real passing score. Never claim a certificate you did not earn, and never alter a certificate.
- Extra credit must be your own work in your own words, too. An essay or a project that is copied — or written by someone else — earns no credit.

Respect for Others

- Treat every person with respect — fellow students and everyone you meet through this school.
- Speak and act in a way that helps others learn. No bullying, no harassment, and no tearing others down.
- Remember why this school exists: to help people become smarter and stronger. Conduct that harms that purpose does not belong here.

Rules That Apply Everywhere in This School

Some things have no place anywhere in this school — not in the Study Hall, not in anything you submit, not anywhere a student can speak or write here:

- No hate speech — no words that attack people for who they are.
- No violence and no threats — no violent words, and no threatening anyone.
- No profanity.
- No sexual talk of any kind.
- No criminal content — nothing that teaches, plans, or celebrates breaking the law. (Studying the law itself, in the lessons, is this school's work. That is different, and it belongs in the lessons.)
- No drug content — nothing about using, making, or getting drugs.

These rules are firm. Part 4 explains exactly what happens when they are broken.

A Self-Taught School

This school is self-taught. There are no teachers here, and there are no tutors. You learn at your own pace, and everything you need to learn is taught in the lessons themselves. The Study Hall (Part 3) is students helping students — a place to ask questions and to study together — but no one there is your teacher, and their help never takes the place of the lessons.

A Firm Word, Kindly Meant

These standards are plain, and they are firm. A student who cheats, who claims work or certificates that are not theirs, or who treats others without respect may lose the standing that comes with being a student here. Honesty is not just a rule of this school. It is the foundation everything else is built on.

When in doubt, ask yourself one question: Is this honest? If the answer is yes, you are on the right path.

Part 3 — Study Hall Rules & Monitoring

The Study Hall is the school's shared room, inside the app — a place where students ask questions about the lessons and help each other study.

The Study Hall is monitored. Minister Destiny oversees the hall. Every post can be reported, and any post can be removed. Write as if she is reading — because the hall is watched over, on purpose, to keep it safe for everyone.

The hall is for school talk only. Ask about the lessons. Work through a topic together. Encourage a classmate. Nothing personal belongs there: no personal stories, no personal details, no meeting up, and no taking the conversation anywhere else.

The safety blocks. The hall automatically stops any message that tries to share any of these — the message never appears:

- Phone numbers
- Street addresses
- Email addresses
- Social media names, handles, or pages
- Links of any kind
- Payment information — payment apps, card or account numbers — and any asking for or offering money or payment in any form. This school is free, always.

- Personal locations — where you live, or what city, state, or country you are from

When a message is stopped, the student sees one line: That can't be shared here — this space is kept safe by blocking contact details, locations, and payment information.

Messages that break the conduct rules in Part 2 — hate speech, violent words or threats, profanity, sexual talk, criminal content, or drug content — are also stopped, and those attempts carry the consequences set out in Part 4.

Part 4 — Discipline & Points

The rules in this handbook protect every student, so the school keeps them with one clear system — the same for everyone, and set out in full here, before you ever enroll.

When a student tries to post or submit something that breaks one of the serious rules, three things happen: an alert goes to Minister Destiny, points come off the student's grade record, and a warning is sent (explained below). Trying to get around the system — trying to hack or tamper with it — is treated as the most serious break of all.

Points Taken Off

- -2 points — minor: profanity; or repeated personal or off-topic talk in the Study Hall after the school-talk rule has been made clear.
- -5 points — serious: hate speech; sexual content; drug content; or criminal content.
- -10 points — severe: violence or threats; or trying to hack or tamper with the school's systems.

Points are part of your official grade record. They appear on your report card as a conduct deduction (Part 5), so your record always shows your work and your conduct together, honestly.

The Warning Email

Every time an attempt breaks one of these serious rules, the system automatically emails the student a warning. The email states:

- The rule that was broken, by category — for example, profanity, or hate speech;
- The date of the attempt;
- How many points were taken;

- The student's new points balance;
- What happens next if it continues — a further warning, then a temporary block on Study Hall speech, then a block pending review; and
- How to earn the points back (see below).

If the student is under 18, the warning also goes to the parent or guardian named on the enrollment record.

The warning never quotes the blocked words back — the school keeps no copy of them, in the email or anywhere else. The school's violation record holds only three things: the category, the date, and the points — never the words used.

A student who is not enrolled has no email on file with the school, so instead of an email, that student sees the same warning on screen in the Study Hall at the moment of the attempt.

Losing Speech in the Study Hall

Breaking the hall's rules costs speech in the hall, on a ladder:

- Warning — the warning email (or the on-screen warning) is sent.
- Temporary block — the student's speech in the Study Hall is blocked for a time.
- Block pending review — speech stays blocked until Minister Destiny reviews the record.

The ladder is about the hall only. Learning itself is never blocked. No violation can take away your lessons, your tests, or what you have earned.

Earning Your Points Back

Points are not gone forever. This school believes good behavior is always worth more than a mistake costs forever — so points can be earned back, up to full:

- +1 point for every full week with no violations.
- +5 points for a completed act of service — the school's service work, done and recorded.
- Restored on review — Minister Destiny may restore points when she reviews a student's record and sees real change.

The way back is always open. Do the time honestly, do good work, and your record heals.

Initials: _____

Part 5 — Progress & Report Cards

Because this school is self-taught, your records are your own proof of work. The school keeps them with you, in two forms.

Progress Reports

Your progress report shows where you stand as you learn: the topics and units you have completed, your test scores, your current rank, and your points balance. It is the running story of your work.

Report Cards

Your report card is the formal record of a course or a year. It shows:

- Your test averages — what your scores earned;
- Any conduct deduction — points taken under Part 4, shown plainly;
- Any extra credit earned (below), shown as its own line; and
- Your final grade — the honest total of all of it.

Voluntary Extra Credit

If you wish — only if you wish — you may earn extra credit:

- Write an essay or paper about a topic you are learning, in your own words; or
- Create a project of your own choice about a topic — a poster, a presentation, a model, a community resource, artwork with a written explanation: the choice is yours.

Enrolled students submit from their record. Minister Destiny reviews each submission herself and awards the points: 1 to 5 points for an essay or paper, by its depth and how truly it is in your own words; 1 to 10 points for a project, by its scope and what it shows you learned. Extra credit appears on your report card as its own line, and it can lift a final grade a little — at most +5 points in total. Tests carry the grade; extra credit rewards initiative, and it never replaces learning.

Extra credit is always voluntary. It is never required, and choosing not to do it never lowers a grade. If you are not enrolled, you may still write and create for your own learning — official extra-credit points live on an enrollment record, like ID cards and certificates. And as Part 2 states: copied work, or anyone else's work, earns no credit.

The school also holds a project event every month: each school has a topic event with a completion date, and you may sign up for it, receive reminders as the date approaches, and submit your essay or project through the school's page. Work that

Minister Destiny approves is highlighted under the event's Projects on the school page. Events are voluntary, like all extra credit — and missing a date carries no penalty.

Your Project ID. When you sign up for an event, the school gives you a Project ID number. It is a separate number from your student ID, and it belongs to you alone — no one else can connect it to you. Always submit your projects under your Project ID — never under your student ID number, and never under your name. Work that appears on the school page under an event's Projects is shown as the work itself, under your Project ID or with nothing attached at all. Your name never appears there — there is no option to show it. Your Project ID is the only identifier anyone will ever see on your work. If you try to submit work using your student ID number or your name instead, the school's system will not accept it. This is for your protection.

Graduation Policy

This school graduates its students — and because this school is self-taught and self-paced, graduation here is measured against your own plan, not against anyone else's clock. No one in this school is behind. Your pace is your pace, and the school honors what you set out to finish. This policy states how graduation works.

Plans & Pace

When you enroll, you choose a study plan: the courses and topics you decide to take. The plan is yours, and you may change it whenever you wish, as your life and your goals change. You also choose your pace — one course a month, one course every few months, or several courses at once — and you may change that too, at any time. Your pace is a guide for your own planning. It is never a deadline, and it is never a penalty.

There is no deadline to graduate. When you complete your chosen plan — however long your pace takes — you graduate.

The Rank Categories

Course Ranks

While you study, you hold a course rank — your standing on the school's four-year path:

- Freshman — Year One of the path.
- Sophomore — Year Two.
- Junior — Year Three.

- Senior — Year Four.

Graduation Honors

When you complete your plan, you graduate with the honor your work has earned:

- Graduate — you completed your chosen study plan.
- Graduate with Honors — you completed your plan with an overall average of 90% or higher.
- Graduate with High Honors — you completed your plan with an overall average of 95% or higher.
- Graduate with Advanced Standing — you completed your chosen plan and at least one full additional course beyond it.

Your overall average counts everything you completed — in your plan or beyond it. A finished course cannot be hidden by taking it off a plan. Honest work stays on your record, and it counts.

Summit Honors

Two honors stand at the summit of this school, for the student whose pace takes them everywhere:

- High Honors of the School — you completed the entire catalog of the school — every course and every topic, in every category — within four years of enrolling.
- Valedictorian — the school's highest rank: the entire catalog within four years, and an overall average of 95% or higher.

"The entire catalog" means the catalog as it is published in this handbook's appendix. As the school publishes more, the honor grows with it.

Service Ranks

School Ambassador is a rank of service, not of coursework. A graduate who has completed the school's service work and stands in full good conduct may be named a School Ambassador by the Minister; Ambassadors represent the school in their communities, welcome new students, and carry the school's mission outward. The rank is held while the graduate remains in good standing, is honored by Project ID like the other ranks, and may be withdrawn by the Minister.

Diplomas & the Graduation Event

Every graduate receives a diploma bearing their name and their rank, issued under the name of the Minister and signed Minister Destiny Marie Morgan, Minister, Minister Destiny Testimony Schools, and the rank is recorded on the graduate's transcript.

Once a year, the school holds a Graduation Event on the school page, honoring the year's graduates. True to this school's privacy rule, graduates are honored by Project ID and rank — names never appear. The event's date is announced on the school page.

Credits and Transfer

Credits, certificates, diplomas, and ranks earned at Minister Destiny Testimony Schools belong to this school alone. This school is not accredited, and its credits are not transferable: no other school, college, employer, or agency is required to accept them, and students should not expect them to be accepted elsewhere.

What this school gives is real on its own terms: knowledge, skills, honest records of study, and learning experiences offered freely, as information, to communities that are too often denied these resources.

It is this school's long-term goal to grow, one day, into a fully recognized school whose credits students can carry anywhere. That work is ahead of the school. The school makes no promise — express or implied — that accreditation will be achieved, or that its credits will be accepted by any other institution before then.

Community Service

This school serves its communities, and its students are invited to serve theirs. The school page keeps a Community Service section where enrolled students record the service they do in their communities — the hours they give, in their own neighborhoods, in their own way.

The school's goal is 10 hours a year — a voluntary goal, held up to honor. It is never a condition of enrollment, and falling short of it is never a penalty. Record only service you truly did; honesty is the whole of this record.

Community Service Ambassador. A student who completes 40 hours or more of community service across their studies becomes eligible to be named a Community Service Ambassador at graduation — the school's thanks for a graduate who served.

Apprenticeship Credit

Learning happens beyond this school's pages, too. A student who finds an apprenticeship program related to a topic they study here may earn credit for it toward graduation.

The proof is the company's own letterhead: the student uploads it to their record on the school page, with the program's name, the topic it relates to, and the dates and hours worked. Credit is awarded on the Minister's approval: an approved apprenticeship satisfies the related topic in the student's plan — or, when it maps to no topic in the plan, counts toward Advanced Standing — and it appears on the transcript as apprenticeship credit, with its hours.

Only real apprenticeships, with real proof. A letterhead that does not check out earns nothing.

Part 6 — Leaving the School

Leaving is your choice, at any time. You do not have to ask anyone, and you do not need anyone's permission. On your own page there is an Unenroll button: press it, and you unenroll yourself — no fee, no penalty, and no waiting.

Before you finish, the button asks you three short questions: why you are leaving; whether your leaving is temporary or permanent; and whether you think you will return one day. These questions are not asked to stop you — nothing you answer can block your leaving. They are asked for one honest reason: your answers decide how your school records are filed.

If your leaving is temporary — or you think you may return — your record is filed open, "on leave." Your student ID number stays yours, and it stays live. Your progress, your certificates, and your points stay exactly as they are, waiting for you. If you come back, you return under the same student ID number: there is never a second record for you, and never a conflict.

If your leaving is permanent — your record is filed closed, "withdrawn," and kept as a ministry record. Even then, your student ID number is never given to anyone else. It remains yours, and yours only — and if life ever brings you back to this school, you will return under that same number.

Unenrolling ends your enrollment. Your Study Hall posting ends, and your certificate access on the school page ends. What you have learned is yours, and it stays yours.

Your closing package. When you unenroll, the school emails you your documents, for your own keeping: every certificate of completion you have earned; your progress report and report card; and your transcript — the official record of the courses you completed and the grades you earned, issued under the name of the Minister. They are yours to keep, forever, whether or not you ever return.

The Withdrawal Process, Step by Step

Leaving this school has a name: it is called the withdrawal process. Here it is, step by step, so nothing about it is ever unclear:

1. Press the Unenroll button on your own page. Leaving is yours to do — no asking, no permission, no fee, and no waiting.
2. Answer the three questions: why you are leaving; whether your leaving is temporary or permanent; and whether you think you will return one day. Your answers can never block your leaving — they only decide how your record is filed.
3. Your record is filed by your answers: filed open, "on leave," if your leaving is temporary or you may return; filed closed, "withdrawn," if your leaving is permanent.
4. Your Study Hall posting ends, and your certificate access on the school page ends.
5. Your closing package arrives by email — every certificate of completion you have earned, your progress report and report card, and your transcript — yours to keep, forever.
6. Your student ID number stays yours in the school's records. It is never given to anyone else — and if you ever return, you return under that same number.

One thing is stated honestly here, upfront: Minister Destiny keeps the historical record of your enrollment as a ministry record — that you were a student here, and the record of your time as one. It is kept privately, under Part 7. It is never published, and it is never sold. Unenrolling ends your enrollment; it does not erase the ministry's record that the enrollment existed.

And before you go, hear this from the school: thank you for being a student here. We are glad you came, and glad for everything you learned while you were with us. Wherever your road leads next, we wish you peace and blessings on your journey in life — and if that road ever leads back here, your number, and your place, will be waiting.

Initials: _____

Part 7 — Privacy & Records

Your privacy matters. This part is the school's privacy policy, in plain words: what the school collects and why, what it never collects, and how your records are kept.

What the School Collects — and Why

The school collects only what it needs to enroll you, to teach you, and to keep honest records of your work:

- Your name and your email — to keep your enrollment record; to send your student ID card, your certificates, your reports, and your transcript; and to reach you about your record.
- Your phone number — only if you choose to give it. It is optional, never required.
- Your school, your student ID number, and your enrollment date — the number that identifies your record, from the day you enroll.
- Your age group — to place you in the right school. The school never asks for your birthdate (Part 1).
- Your photo — for your student ID card (see "Your Photo," below).
- Your learning record — the courses and units you complete, your test scores, the certificates you earn, and your report cards: the official record of your work.
- Your conduct record — if a violation happens under Part 4, the school records only the category, the date, and the points. Never the words used.
- Your School Mail — the messages between you and the Minister's office, and the project files you send with them. School Mail is part of your student record (see "School Mail," below).

Nothing is collected for advertising. Nothing is collected to sell. If the school does not need it to run the school and keep your record, the school does not collect it.

What the School Never Collects

- Birthdates — never asked for, never stored.
- ID document numbers — the school never records the number of any government document.
- Copies of documents — nothing of yours is copied, photographed, or kept.
- Payment information — this school is free. No card numbers, no bank accounts, no payment details of any kind are ever asked for or kept.

Your Photo

Your photo is used only for your student ID card and your enrollment record. It is never published, never shared, and never used for anything else.

How Your Record Is Kept

- Your records are kept backend-only — held privately, for ministry and official records.
- They are never published.

- They are never sold.

Your day-to-day study progress, as explained earlier in this handbook, stays on your own device. The ministry's records and your own learning progress are two different things, and both are treated with care.

School Mail

School Mail is the school's own mailbox, inside the school only. It is not email: nothing in it can be sent to or received from any outside address. Your mailbox is addressed by your student ID number — there is no email address to give out — and the only person who can write to you there is the Minister's office. Students cannot mail each other.

Your School Mail is kept as part of your student record, under everything this part has said: it is held privately, it is never published, and it is never sold. The project files you send through School Mail are kept the same way — they are private records, never published and never shown to anyone else.

The only email School Mail ever causes outside the school is a short notice saying only that a message is waiting. It never carries what any message says. There is one exception, and it exists for your protection: if you flag a message as a safety issue, the message is also sent to Minister Destiny's own email at once, so she sees it without delay.

Records and the Authorities

These are ministry records, and they are kept honestly. Minister Destiny keeps them so that, if the authorities ever lawfully require the school's records, the ministry can provide them. That is part of keeping true records — and it is stated here plainly, so there are no surprises.

How Long Your Records Are Kept

Your records are kept as ministry records — they are not erased when you leave. If you leave temporarily, your record is filed open, "on leave"; if you leave permanently, it is filed closed, "withdrawn" (Part 6). Either way, the record of your enrollment and of your work remains, held privately and kept exactly as this part describes.

Questions About Your Privacy

If you ever have a question about your records or your privacy, write to the ministry at ministerdestinymariemorgan@gmail.com.

Appendix — Course Catalog & Syllabi

This appendix is the school's full catalog, printed the way a university catalog prints a course: each flagship course with its syllabus — every unit by title, the lessons inside each unit by title, its test, and its final exams — followed by the table of all courses and topics, every title on the page. The passing standard on every test and exam in this school is 80%.

The Youth Course — Syllabus

The Youth Course is the Youth School's full course. It begins with the four Core Weeks — the starter program — and continues through Months 1–12. Months 1, 2, 3, and 6 teach the same foundations as Core Weeks 1–4, so a passed Core Week also completes its Month. Every unit below lists its lessons by title and its unit test.

Core Week 1 — Safe at Home, and Your Trusted-Adult Map

- What "safe" actually means
- Red flags at home — signs something is wrong
- Your trusted-adult map
- Asking for help when you cannot talk out loud
- Your own quick safety plan (make it today)
- Test: "Week 1: Safe at Home, and Your Trusted-Adult Map" — the unit test (80% to pass).

Core Week 2 — Safe Online: Strangers, Fake Friends, and Pressure

- Grooming — the pattern, step by step
- The photo rule (this one matters)
- Everyday online safety habits
- If it already happened — the exact steps
- Test: "Week 2: Safe Online — Strangers, Fake Friends, and Pressure" — the unit test (80% to pass).

Core Week 3 — Bullying and Cyberbullying: What to Do, and How to Help a Friend

- The four kinds
- If it is happening to you — the plan
- If you see it happening to someone else — be the reason it stops
- If you realize you've been part of it

- Threats and crimes are different — act faster
- Test: “Week 3: Bullying and Cyberbullying — What to Do, and How to Help a Friend” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Core Week 4 — When It Feels Like Too Much: Feelings, Help, and Your Safety Plan

- Feelings are signals, not verdicts
- Know the help lines (put them in your phone today)
- The friend rule: take it seriously, every time
- Calm-down tools that actually help (for the everyday too-much days)
- Build your personal safety plan (write it in your notes app or on paper)
- Test: “Week 4: When It Feels Like Too Much — Feelings, Help, and Your Safety Plan” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 1 — Safety at Home and Knowing a Trusted Adult

- What safe at home really means
- Red flags at home — signs something is wrong
- Your trusted-adult map — build it before you need it
- How to ask for help when you cannot talk out loud
- Your quick safety plan — make it today
- What NOT to do
- Test: “Month 1: Safety at Home and Knowing a Trusted Adult” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 2 — Online Safety — Strangers, Grooming, Sexting, and Sextortion

- Why online safety needs its own plan
- Grooming — the pattern, step by step
- The photo rule — this one matters most
- Everyday online safety habits
- If it already happened — the exact steps
- What to expect after you tell
- Test: “Month 2: Online Safety — Strangers, Grooming, Sexting, and Sextortion” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 3 — Bullying and Cyberbullying

- What bullying is — and what it is not
- The four kinds of bullying
- If it is happening to you — the plan, step by step
- If you see it happening to someone else — be the reason it stops
- If you realize you have been part of it
- Threats and crimes are different — act faster
- Test: “Month 3: Bullying and Cyberbullying — What to Do, How to Help a Friend” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 4 — Dating, Consent, and Healthy Relationships

- What a healthy relationship actually looks like
- Consent — what it is, in plain language
- Boundaries — your lines, stated clearly
- Red flags of an unhealthy relationship
- Pressure — how it sounds and how to answer it
- Getting out, helping a friend, and telling an adult
- Test: “Month 4: Dating, Consent, and Healthy Relationships” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 5 — Peer Pressure, Vaping, Drugs, and Alcohol

- How peer pressure actually works
- Refusal skills — saying no and keeping your people
- What vaping actually does
- Alcohol, marijuana, and pills — plain facts
- Fentanyl — the danger, in plain terms
- Helping a friend, and getting help yourself
- Test: “Month 5: Peer Pressure, Vaping, Drugs, and Alcohol” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 6 — Mental Health — Feeling Overwhelmed, Asking for Help, Staying Safe

- Feelings are signals, not verdicts
- Asking for help is a skill

- Know the help lines — put them in your phone today
- The friend rule — take it seriously, every time
- Calm-down tools that actually help
- Build your personal safety plan
- Test: “Month 6: Mental Health — Feeling Overwhelmed, Asking for Help, Staying Safe” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 7 — Trouble at School, Running Away, and Safer Choices

- What trouble at school can look like
- Why early help works better than waiting
- The pause plan for heated moments at school
- If you are called to the office or accused of something
- Why young people think about running away
- The real risks once you are out the door
- Safer choices that still give you space
- Repair after trouble — how trust is rebuilt
- Test: “Month 7: Trouble at School, Running Away, and Safer Choices” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 8 — Your Body, Your Health, and Questions You Are Scared to Ask

- Puberty — what changes, and why the timing is different for everyone
- Periods and everyday body changes, in plain language
- Hygiene that actually works
- Food, movement, sleep, and screens — the four basics
- Seeing a doctor — what a checkup is really like
- Body safety rules that never change
- Asking the questions you are scared to ask
- Respecting other people's bodies and privacy
- You deserve respectful care — every time
- Test: “Month 8: Your Body, Your Health, and Questions You Are Scared to Ask” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 9 — The Juvenile Court Process — Detention, DYS, Probation, Step by Step

- Why juvenile court exists, and how it differs from adult court
- Step one — police contact
- Step two — intake and the first decisions
- Step three — arraignment, explained plainly
- Step four — the detention hearing, and what detention means
- Step five — the case itself: hearings, negotiation, and trial
- Step six — disposition: probation, DYS commitment, and other outcomes
- Release, going home, and staying out of the courtroom
- Test: “Month 9: The Juvenile Court Process — Detention, DYS, Probation, Step by Step” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 10 — Charges, Fines, and Consequences — and the Vocabulary of the System

- What a charge actually is
- The path from charge to outcome — key words in order
- Fines, fees, and costs — three different buckets of money
- Restitution — money with a different purpose
- Records — what is kept, who can see it, and what "sealed" means
- Consequences beyond the courtroom — school, home, activities, future
- Probation conditions, violations, and how small slips grow
- Speaking the system's language without fear
- Test: “Month 10: Charges, Fines, and Consequences — and the Vocabulary of the System” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 11 — Medical and Mental-Health Facilities — What a Stay Is Like, Your Rights

- Why a young person might stay in a facility
- Intake — what happens when you arrive
- The people you will meet
- A typical day inside
- Your rights during a stay
- Staying connected to family and school

- Discharge — how going home actually works
- Getting the most from a stay, and afterwards
- Test: “Month 11: Medical and Mental-Health Facilities — What a Stay Is Like, Your Rights” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Month 12 — Staying Out of Trouble — Exit Plans, Goals, and a Fresh Start

- What a fresh start really is — and what it is not
- Your exit plan — leaving old patterns on purpose
- Goals that can be measured — school, home, and future
- Your support team — who does what
- Repair — finishing what the past still owes
- Handling the pull back — slips, labels, and hard days
- Looking forward — education, work, and your story
- Test: “Month 12: Staying Out of Trouble — Exit Plans, Goals, and a Fresh Start” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Final Exams

- Final Exam — Months 1–3 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Months 4–6 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Months 7–9 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Months 10–12 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).

Grades and rank. A course grade is the average of your best score on each unit test (A 90–100, B 80–89, C 70–79, D 60–69, F below 60). Every test in this school — unit tests and final exams alike — is passed at 80% or higher. Your rank stands at Freshman while Year 1 is in progress, and rises to Sophomore when every unit and all four quarterly finals are passed at 80% or higher.

The Adult Course — Syllabus

The Adult Course is the Adult School's full course: Sections 1–12, with Medical Discrimination carried as Unit 13, the added topic. Every unit below lists its lessons by title and its unit test.

Section 1 — The Law and Consequences of Crimes: Effects on You, Your Kids, Your Family, Your Housing, and Your Job

- What happens, step by step, when there is a charge
- The consequences nobody warns you about — “collateral consequences”

- The real-life math
- If you or someone you love is facing a charge — the protective steps
- Test: “Section 1: The Law and Consequences of Crimes — Effects on You, Your Kids, Your Family, Your Housing, and Your Job” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 2 — Child Abuse and Neglect: The Signs, How Reporting Works, the Consequences, and How to Get Help Early

- What child abuse and neglect actually mean
- The signs — what to watch for in children and in adults
- How reporting works, step by step
- The consequences — for adults who harm, and for families
- Getting help early — before there is anything to report
- Test: “Section 2: Child Abuse and Neglect: The Signs, How Reporting Works, the Consequences, and How to Get Help Early” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 3 — Abuse in Families and Relationships: Domestic Violence, Coercive Control, Protecting Children, and Finding Safety and Help

- What domestic violence is — and what it is not
- Coercive control — the abuse that leaves no bruises
- Warning signs — early, and in an established pattern
- Protecting children inside an abusive home
- Safety planning — the practical core
- If someone tells you — and if you are the one causing harm
- Test: “Section 3: Abuse in Families and Relationships: Domestic Violence, Coercive Control, Protecting Children, and Finding Safety and Help” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 4 — Workplace Rights: Sexual Harassment, How to Report It, What Employers Must Do, and the Consequences

- What sexual harassment is, in plain terms
- Other workplace mistreatment the law also reaches
- What your employer must do
- How to report — inside, outside, and in what order
- Documentation — the skill that changes outcomes
- Consequences — for harassers, for employers, and the bystander question

- Test: “Section 4: Workplace Rights: Sexual Harassment, How to Report It, What Employers Must Do, and the Consequences” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 5 — Parenting Skills and Training: Positive Discipline, Supervision, Communication, and Routines That Work

- The mindset: discipline means teaching
- Positive discipline, tool by tool
- Supervision — the quiet work that prevents almost everything
- Communication — talking so children can hear, listening so they will talk
- Routines — the invisible structure children lean on
- Test: “Section 5: Parenting Skills and Training: Positive Discipline, Supervision, Communication, and Routines That Work” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 6 — Parenting Under Stress: Anger, Substance Use, Mental Health, and Asking for Help Before Crisis

- Stress, the body, and why good parents snap
- Anger — the ten minutes that decide everything
- Substance use and parenting — the honest picture
- Mental health — yours is part of the child's environment
- Asking for help — the skill, practiced step by step
- The family stress plan — putting the section on one page
- Test: “Section 6: Parenting Under Stress: Anger, Substance Use, Mental Health, and Asking for Help Before Crisis” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 7 — Housing, Work and the Law: Leases, Public Housing, Employment, Licenses, and Reentry

- Your lease is a contract — read it like one
- Public and subsidized housing — stricter rules, stronger process
- Employment and your record — what employers actually see
- Licenses — the career door a record can close, and how people reopen it
- Reentry — coming home and staying home
- Test: “Section 7: Housing, Work and the Law: Leases, Public Housing, Employment, Licenses, and Reentry” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 8 — Family Court and Child Welfare: The DCF Process, Court Documents, and Reunification

- How a DCF case usually begins
- The home visit and the investigation — what to expect and how to act
- Reading the papers — court documents in plain language
- Visitation and services — where reunification is really decided
- Reunification — how children come home, and what can delay it
- Test: “Section 8: Family Court and Child Welfare: The DCF Process, Court Documents, and Reunification” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 9 — Healthy Relationships and Boundaries: Consent, Conflict Without Violence, and Co-Parenting

- What a healthy relationship actually does
- Consent — the rule that runs through everything
- Boundaries — saying where you end and the other person begins
- Conflict without violence — a working method for hard conversations
- Co-parenting after a relationship ends
- Test: “Section 9: Healthy Relationships and Boundaries: Consent, Conflict Without Violence, and Co-Parenting” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 10 — Protecting Children Online and in the Community: Grooming and Sextortion Signs, Privacy Settings, Talking With Kids, and Reporting

- How grooming works — the pattern adults must recognize
- Sextortion — the crime wave parents must be ready for
- Privacy settings and household defenses — the practical setup
- Talking with kids — conversations that keep the door open
- Reporting and supporting — after something happens
- Test: “Section 10: Protecting Children Online and in the Community: Grooming and Sextortion Signs, Privacy Settings, Talking With Kids, and Reporting” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 11 — Money, Benefits and Stability: Fines and Fees, Budgeting Basics, and Keeping Benefits Steady

- The financial side of a case — the full bill nobody reads aloud
- Budgeting basics — a plan built from your real month

- Benefits — what stability actually rests on
- Protecting stability — scams, debt traps, and the family money meeting
- Test: “Section 11: Money, Benefits and Stability: Fines and Fees, Budgeting Basics, and Keeping Benefits Steady” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 12 — Recovery, Accountability and Change: Recovery Supports, Making Amends, and Staying the Course

- Recovery is a structure, not a moment
- The first hard stretch — getting through early recovery
- Accountability and making amends — repairing what can be repaired
- Staying the course — the long middle where change becomes a life
- Test: “Section 12: Recovery, Accountability and Change: Recovery Supports, Making Amends, and Staying the Course” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Unit 13 (Added Topic) — Medical Discrimination: Being Believed, Speaking Up, and Getting Help

- Final Exam — Sections 7–9 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Sections 10–13 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).

Grades and rank. A course grade is the average of your best score on each unit test (A 90–100, B 80–89, C 70–79, D 60–69, F below 60). Every test in this school — unit tests and final exams alike — is passed at 80% or higher. Your rank stands at Freshman while Year 1 is in progress, and rises to Sophomore when every unit and all four quarterly finals are passed at 80% or higher.

The Law Enforcement Course — Syllabus

The Law Enforcement Course is the Law Enforcement School's full course: Sections 1–12. Every unit below lists its lessons by title and its unit test.

Section 1 — Community Realities: Environment, Neighborhood, Culture, Race, Income, and Survival Behavior

- Every neighborhood runs on a logic
- Environment and income change what "normal" looks like
- Culture and race — reading without stereotyping
- What are you really seeing? — the five-question read
- Scenario — the porch call
- Test: “Section 1: Community Realities — Environment, Neighborhood, Culture, Race, Income, and Survival Behavior” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 2 — Bias and Judgment: Not Assuming Drugs, and Telling Addiction, Mental Illness, Trauma, and Poverty Apart From Danger

- The drug assumption — why it comes first, and why it misleads
- Four different doors behind the same behavior
- Danger is a separate question — ask it separately
- Bias in judgment — how it operates on a busy shift
- Talking with the person — gathering truth instead of winning
- What not to do
- Test: “Section 2: Bias and Judgment: Not Assuming Drugs, and Telling Addiction, Mental Illness, Trauma, and Poverty Apart From Danger” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 3 — De-escalation Without Profanity or Unnecessary Force: Voice, Distance, Time, and Respect

- What de-escalation is — and what it is not
- Why profanity fails — professionally, not just politely
- The four tools — voice, distance, time, and choices
- A step-by-step field sequence
- Crowds, cameras, and families — the second audience
- When words are not working — force, honesty, and the aftermath

- Test: “Section 3: De-escalation Without Profanity or Unnecessary Force: Voice, Distance, Time, and Respect” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 4 — Faith and Prayer on the Job: Offering Prayer With Permission, Respecting a No, and Honoring Other Faiths

- Why faith appears at police scenes
- When a resident asks you to pray
- Offering prayer — permission is the whole skill
- Other faiths, and no faith — equal respect in practice
- Your own faith on the job — conviction with boundaries
- Chaplains, clergy, and the handoff
- Test: “Section 4: Faith and Prayer on the Job: Offering Prayer With Permission, Respecting a No, and Honoring Other Faiths” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 5 — Fair Traffic Stops: Necessary Checks Only, Never Racial Profiling, and Clear Identification on the Road

- The stop begins before the lights — a lawful, articulable reason
- Never racial profiling — what it is, why it fails, what replaces it
- Necessary checks only — the scope of a fair stop
- Conduct at the window — the eighteen inches that decide everything
- Minister Destiny's vehicle sign and window-cling proposal — taught as a proposal
- After the stop — data, supervision, and self-audit
- Test: “Section 5: Fair Traffic Stops: Necessary Checks Only, Never Racial Profiling, and Clear Identification on the Road” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 6 — Schools, Grades and Home Safety Checks: When School Struggles Signal a Need for Support, and Children Who Cannot Speak Up

- Why school is where children's lives become visible
- This program's proposal — grade patterns as a support-check trigger
- The support check itself — how to conduct one
- Kids who cannot speak up — reading silence as information
- Home safety — what to notice, and what a home is not required to be
- Partnership with schools — roles, respect, and privacy
- Test: “Section 6: Schools, Grades and Home Safety Checks: When School Struggles Signal a Need for Support, and Children Who Cannot Speak Up” — the unit test

(80% to pass).

Section 7 — Addiction Response: Care Instead of Confrontation, the Monitored Observation Unit Proposal, and the Hardest First Week of Withdrawal

- What addiction looks like on a call — and what it is not
- Minister Destiny's proposal — ambulance to a monitored observation unit
- The hardest first week of withdrawal — what to expect
- Step by step — a safer addiction response on scene
- Families, overdoses, and the minutes after
- Test: “Section 7: Addiction Response: Care Instead of Confrontation, the Monitored Observation Unit Proposal, and the Hardest First Week of Withdrawal” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 8 — Domestic Violence and Families Under Stress: Assisting Families Safely in All Circumstances

- What domestic violence is — pattern, power, and stress are not the same thing
- Arriving and making the scene safe — step by step
- Talking with a person who may be a victim — without taking their choices away
- Children, elders, and others in the home
- Leaving the family safer — documentation, referrals, and follow-through
- Test: “Section 8: Domestic Violence and Families Under Stress: Assisting Families Safely in All Circumstances” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 9 — Mental Health Crises: Safe Response and Help Instead of Charges Where Possible

- What a mental health crisis is — and what can look like one
- Talking with a person in crisis — communication that lowers danger
- Suicide risk — asking directly and acting seriously
- Getting help instead of charges where possible — step by step
- After the call — families, repeat calls, and your own steadiness
- When it may be medical, not a mental-health crisis — believe first
- Test: “Section 9: Mental Health Crises: Safe Response and Help Instead of Charges Where Possible” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 10 — The Gym Alternative: A Supervised, Free Law-Enforcement Gym as a Safe Warning Before Arrest for Aggression (Proposal)

- The problem this proposal answers — aggression with nowhere to go
- The proposal in full — what the gym alternative would be
- When the gym alternative must NOT be used
- Making the offer — step by step, and the skills underneath it
- Why this fits the whole course — warnings that teach instead of only threaten
- Test: “Section 10: The Gym Alternative: A Supervised, Free Law-Enforcement Gym as a Safe Warning Before Arrest for Aggression (Proposal)” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 11 — Working With Immigrants, Interpreters and Disability: In the Home and on Stops

- Language is not attitude — slowing down for accuracy
- Working with immigrants — fear you did not create and must not use carelessly
- Disability in the home — seeing the person and the access need together
- When language, status fear, and disability intersect — and what NOT to do
- Test: “Section 11: Working With Immigrants, Interpreters and Disability: In the Home and on Stops” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Section 12 — Rebuilding Trust: Negotiation, Respect, Accountability, and Solutions Instead of More Charges

- What trust actually is — and how it was lost
- Negotiation — the street skill underneath trust
- Respect as a procedure, not a mood
- Accountability — yours, the system's, and the resident's
- Solutions instead of more charges — the closing practice, step by step
- Test: “Section 12: Rebuilding Trust: Negotiation, Respect, Accountability, and Solutions Instead of More Charges” — the unit test (80% to pass).

Final Exams

- Final Exam — Sections 1–3 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Sections 4–6 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Sections 7–9 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).
- Final Exam — Sections 10–12 — a quarterly final exam (80% to pass).

Grades and rank. A course grade is the average of your best score on each unit test (A 90–100, B 80–89, C 70–79, D 60–69, F below 60). Every test in this school — unit tests and final exams alike — is passed at 80% or higher. Your rank stands at Freshman while Year 1 is in progress, and rises to Sophomore when every unit and all four quarterly finals are passed at 80% or higher.

Safety & Scope

Minister Destiny Testimony Schools is a school. It teaches. Please read this section carefully, so you understand what this school is — and what it is not.

What This School Is Not

- This school is not legal advice. Lessons teach general knowledge about the law and about life. They do not tell you what to do in your own legal matter.
- This school is not a lawyer. No lesson, test, or certificate makes the school your lawyer, and nothing here creates a lawyer–client relationship.
- This school is not an accredited institution, and it is not a government body. Minister Destiny Testimony Schools is a free community school. Its certificates are honest records of study and achievement at this school — nothing more, and nothing less. Credits, certificates, diplomas, and ranks earned at this school are not transferable, and no other school, college, employer, or agency is required to accept them.
- A student ID from this school is school identification only. It is not a government ID, and it must never be presented as one.
- This school is not an emergency service. It cannot respond to emergencies, and it cannot send help.

If you need legal advice about your own situation, speak with a qualified lawyer. If you are in danger or facing an emergency, use one of the crisis lines below.

Crisis Lines

If you or someone near you needs urgent help, please reach out:

- Emergency: 911
- Suicide and Crisis Lifeline: 988
- Crisis Text Line: text HOME to 741741
- National Domestic Violence Hotline: 1-800-799-7233
- RAINN (National Sexual Assault Hotline): 1-800-656-4673
- Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-422-4453
- SAMHSA National Helpline: 1-800-662-4357
- Poison Control: 1-800-222-1222

You matter. If you are in crisis, please make the call or send the text. Help is there, and reaching for it is a strong and right thing to do.

Learning can wait. Safety cannot. Take care of yourself and the people around you first — the lessons will still be here when you are ready.

Legal Notices & Liability

Please read these notices carefully. They protect the school, and they tell you honestly where the school's responsibility ends and your own judgment begins.

Educational Purpose

Every lesson, book, and material in this school is provided for general education and information only. Nothing in this school is legal, medical, financial, or other professional advice, and nothing here tells you what to do in your own situation. Enrolling, studying, or communicating with the school does not create an attorney–client relationship, a counselor relationship, or any other professional relationship with Minister Destiny Testimony Schools, with the ministry, or with Minister Destiny Marie Morgan. For any matter that affects your rights, your health, or your safety, consult a licensed professional in your own state.

Sources and No Affiliation

The school's materials draw on laws, official publications, and other third-party sources. Those sources belong to their owners. Naming, quoting, or teaching from a source does not make this school affiliated with, endorsed by, sponsored by, or acting for any government agency, court, institution, organization, or author named in the materials, and the school claims no such affiliation. This school stands on its own: it is a free community school, run by the ministry, and by no one else.

Student Content

Anything a student writes, posts, submits, or creates — Study Hall posts, essays, projects, and every other student work — is that student's own work and that student's own words. What a student says or creates does not represent Minister Destiny Testimony Schools, the ministry, or Minister Destiny Marie Morgan. None of them adopts, endorses, or is responsible for any student's content. Each student answers for their own words, under the rules in Part 2 and Part 4 of this handbook.

Review and Accuracy

Every material in this school is reviewed before it is released, so that its content is checked and its lawfulness is confirmed to the best of the school's ability. Even so, laws and official guidance change, and no material can carry every fact. Materials carry the dates they were checked where the school has stated those dates, and the school makes no warranty that any material is complete, current, or free of error. Before you act on anything you learn here, confirm the current law and the current rules for yourself.

No Warranties; Limitation of Liability

This school and its materials are provided "as is," without warranties of any kind, express or implied. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Minister Destiny Testimony Schools, its ministry, and Minister Destiny Marie Morgan are not liable for any loss, damage, claim, or outcome arising from the use of — or reliance on — this school's materials, and they are not liable for any decision a student or reader makes based on those materials. Each person studies here by their own judgment, and acts at their own discretion.

Severability and Governing Law

If any part of these notices is held to be unenforceable, the remaining parts stand in full force. These notices, and your enrollment under them, are governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
